

Greater Nagoya - U.S. Aerospace Symposium 2015

U.S. aerospace companies introduce the latest technology and their forecasts of Japan's Aerospace Industry

Greater Nagoya – U.S. Aerospace Symposium 2015 showcases the latest technologies and what is anticipated of Japan's Aerospace Industry. U.S. Aerospace manufacturers will explain trends and prospects for the further development of every company in the aerospace industry in the Greater Nagoya area.

Day & Time	March 5th 2015, Thu [Part 1] 14:00 - 16:30 Symposium [Part 2] 17:00 - 19:00 Networking
Venue	Nagoya Tokyu Hotel 3F Renaissance (4-6-8, Sakae, Naka-ku, Nagoya) ✂ Networking will be held at Gothic (at the same hotel)
Attendance fee	Symposium: Free Networking: 5,000 yen (including food and drink)
Capacity	100 people
Language	Japanese - English simultaneous interpretation (The contents of the program may change without notice)

Program

[Part 1]
14:00 - 14:10	Opening Fumio KAWAGUCHI, Greater Nagoya Initiative Center, Chairman Setsuo IUUCHI, Chubu Bureau of Economy, Trade and Industry, Director-General
14:10 - 14:55	Rockwell Collins Mr. Nicholas GIBBS, Rockwell Collins, Managing Director Australia "The latest technology of Rockwell Collins and their forecasts of Japan's Aerospace Industry"
14:55 - 15:10	Q & A session
15:10 - 15:30	Break
15:30 - 16:15	Pratt & Whitney Mr. Johnny GAMALO, Pratt & Whitney, PW1200G Program General Manager "The latest technology of Pratt & Whitney and their forecasts of Japan's Aerospace Industry"
16:15 - 16:30	Q & A session
[Part 2]
17:00 - 19:00	Networking

Organizer	Greater Nagoya Initiative Center (GNIC)
Co-organizer	Chubu Aerospace Industry and Technology Center (C-ASTEC)
Sponsorship	Japan External Trade Organization Nagoya office (only Part1), Chubu Economic Federation, Nagoya Chamber of Commerce & industry, Aichi Bank, Ltd., Juroku Bank, Ltd., Bank of NAGOYA Ltd., Hyakugo Bank, Ltd., Okazaki Shinkin Bank, Gifu Shinkin Bank, Seto Shinkin Bank, Hekikai Shinkin Bank, Toyota Tsusho Corporation, Mie aerospace industry project
Cooperation	Rockwell Collins, Pratt & Whitney
Sponsor	The Foundation for International Trade and Industrial Co-operation