

The German Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Japan presents:

Special Event in Japanese & English

Eco-friendly Vehicle Seminar

Greater Nagoya Initiative Center

March 10th, 2015 (Tue) 10:00-12:40 (incl. networking)

The German Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Japan (map)

Sanbancho KS Bldg. 5F, 2-4 Sanbancho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo Tel. 03-5276-9811

!! Participation is free of charge!!

The Eco-friendly Vehicle Seminar will offer up-to-date information about the approaches and strategies in the Greater Nagoya region for the realization of 'sustainable society'. While many companies are trying to tackle for sustainable and eco-friendly society, excellent companies in Greater Nagoya achieve some advanced practice, such as FCV and forklift equipped with FC system.

Program (subject to change):

10:00 Opening Remarks

- [1] Introduction of Greater Nagoya Initiative and a relationship with Germany (10:05-10:15)
Greater Nagoya Initiative Center
- [2] Hydrogen, new challenge for the sustainable society ~Potential of FCV "MIRAI"~ (10:15-11:15)
Mr. Katsuhiko HIROSE, Project General Manager R&D Management Div. Toyota Motor Corporation
Theme: "MIRAI", the vehicle of fuel cell, environment-friendly power source. Mr. Hirose introduces the potential of "MIRAI" for realization of sustainable society, TOYOTA's vision and their approaches
- [3] Further possibility of FC system ~ Toyota Industries Corporation 's approaches~ (11:15-11:55)
Mr. Hironori Suzuki, Project Manager, Technical Planning Office, Engineering Dept. No.2 R&D Headquarters Toyota Industries Corporation
Theme: Fuel cell transportation machinery is not the only MIRAI. Mr. Suzuki introduces forklift equipped with FC system, a background of R&D, their approaches for eco-friendly society and the future strategy.
- [4] Networking (11:55-12:40)

※ We apologize in advance that lecturer companies cannot accept the business meeting.